PARENTING A CHILD WITH ADHD

The American Academy of Pediatrics has updated the guidelines for diagnosis, evaluation and treatment of ADHD. In this update, the recommended primary intervention for children with ADHD and children with ADHD-like behaviors whose diagnosis is not yet verified is Parent Training in Behavior Management (PTBM).

We are excited to offer a ten week parenting group facilitated by our counselor, Vicki Gedert, on several topics related to parenting a child with ADHD. There will be 8 weeks of 90 minute sessions focused on ADHD and ADHD-like behaviors, followed by a one and two month follow up each lasting 90 minutes. All sessions are on Thursdays.

Our Dietitian, Amy Reed, will hold an OPTIONAL session on Thursday, April 9th to discuss ADHD and Nutrition.
